

National Severe Weather Warning Service

Chief Forecasters Assessment

As an intense low moves into the North Sea, recent evidence points to a focus for strong winds moving over, or very close to, northeast Scotland during this morning, with a brief period of very damaging winds likely.

The Met Office have issued an Amber Warning of Wind

Valid from 07:00 on Thu, 05th Dec 2013 until 11:00 on Thu, 05th Dec 2013

Winds are expected to gust to more than 80 mph as they swing northwesterly around mid-morning, with peak gusts perhaps more than 90 mph in exposed parts. Winds will ease during the afternoon.

The public should be prepared for the potential for significant disruption.
